

Dace Puce

short BIO

Dace Pūce is Latvian and lives in Riga. She is director, producer and production house "Marana productions" owner.

Holds a Master's degree as film director and producer of Latvian Academy of Culture and choir conductor of Latvian Music Academy. She has a bachelor's degree in bussines management department in Latvian University and studied film directing at the Brighton Film School(UK), the New York Film Academy(USA) and received S. Meisner dramatics techniques certificate on True Acting Institute(USA) .

Dace Pūce created 5 short films, 5 documentaries, many music videos, countless event and advertising projects. She also worked as a acting teacher of the Latvian Culture College and leaded many master classes throughout the Latvia.

Since 2011 till 2015 she runs project Creative Film workshops , but from 2015 Dace established her own school "Pūces Akadēmija", where she is teaching film directing, acting, voice over, producing and storyboarding.

With film project "Burnt by the Moon" she wins first prize in Film Pitching Fest in Portugal, Espinho (2015).

Her short "Tango" was nominated as best short, but documentary "Burnt by the Moon" as best documentary in Latvian film festival "Lielais Kristaps"(2016).